

EWG

Newsletter of the Edmonton Woodturners Guild December, 2019

Intro

This was the Christmas Meeting attended by wives and significant others. Snacks were served.

Show and Tell

The individual items in Show and Tell were not photographed. Several photographs of the table with all the items are shown below:

News

Ted Kuziw, President

- Bill Nestor was honored for serving as president

- Menno Klaasen indicated that his woodturning sales event raised $2024 for Parkland Brain Injuries

- Saturday Sawdust Session — Saturday Dec 7

The hosts are shown in the photo below:

Participants are shown below:

- Presidents Challenge The challenge is to produce a turning from a piece of wood 24 inches long, 2 inches by 4 inches in cross section with any embellishments or finish. Judging will take place at the next meeting.
- A woodturning session with Kai Muenser, of Calgary has been scheduled for Feb 8, 9. The Feb 8, Saturday session will be open to all members at a cost of $45 and the Sunday workshop, for about 6 members, will be $150. A randomized selection process will be used to ensure everyone has an equal chance of attending. Sign up and pay when selected (See his website, kaimuenser.com for examples of his work).
- Merv Graham challenges members to spin all 5 of his finger tops on your 5 fingers at the same time. Winner will receive a piece of wood.

Infomercials

- Wes Daniels has purchased a supply of Parfix, which is a non-toxic grade of CA glue. It is available for $21 for a 2 oz bottle or $15 for the accelerant(780-986-2561)

Bob Pugh Newsletter Editor

rwpugh.1@gmail.com