

EWG

Newsletter of the Edmonton Woodturners Guild January 2020

Intro

Bert Delisle demonstrated how to make a pendant jig and how to turn a pendant.

News

Ted Kuziw, President

- The new website will be ready by the next meeting
- We have a license to hold 50/50 draws. Tickets will cost $5 each and will be valid for the wood lottery draw after the 50/50 is drawn.
- We need a volunteer to look after the equipment. Let Ted know if you are interested (780-953-7905)
- A Sawdust session is planned for Saturday Jan 18 at Canadian Woodworking. Bring your tools and wood to make some shavings and trade ideas.
- A learn-to-turn session planned for Sunday Jan 19 with the Canadian Woodwork store people has space for 3 additional people (cost $45 for the day). Contact Jerry Lindberg at gclindberg@telus.net if interested
- The Kai Muenzer demo session is scheduled for all on Saturday, Feb 8 for $45 and the workshop for 7 on Sunday, Feb 9 for $150.
- Annual membership fees of $60 are due by next meeting. Pay Mike Golka by cash, cheque or etransfer rmgolka@xplornet.ca
- A motion was approved to buy 2 new monitors and stands to allow use of the new cameras

Shop-Made Pendant Jig and Turning a Pendant

Bert Delisle demonstrated how to make a jig to hold a piece of wood that could be turned to be a pendant. A you tube video showing this technique is available at

<https://youtu.be/aCdMgm6fZ6Q>

Show and Tell

The Show and Tell was presented with help from TerrySkinberg and photographed by Jim Plant.

Cory Graham

Manitoba maple bowl

Blood wood pen dipped in polyurethane for finish

Wenge and cherry lidded box with long finial

Mike Golka

Two turned boxes with CNC decorated lids, boxes buffed with Biehl system

KenHawtin

Figured maple bowl finished with wipe-on-poly Box elder burl urn and lid, blue and red mohawk stains

Box elder burl urn and lid, finished with same blue and red mohawk stains but gave different colors

Gary Sedgwick

Crochet hooks made from lilac, red oak and an unknown wood

Stew Bremner

Manitoba maple bowl finished with Osmo oil and buffed on the lathe Apple wood vase with feet

John Keller

Oak bowl finished with Yorkshire grit

Mike Biehler

Ebony bowl

Pierre Laplante

Large birch bowl

Small mystery wood bowl

Spalted poplar live edge bowl

Poplar bowl cored from wood used for bowl below

Large poplar wood salad bowl

Presidents Choice 2X4 Contest

Mike Golka

Spalted sweetgum wood segmented vessels

Jerry Lindberg

Interlocking bowls

Bert Delisle

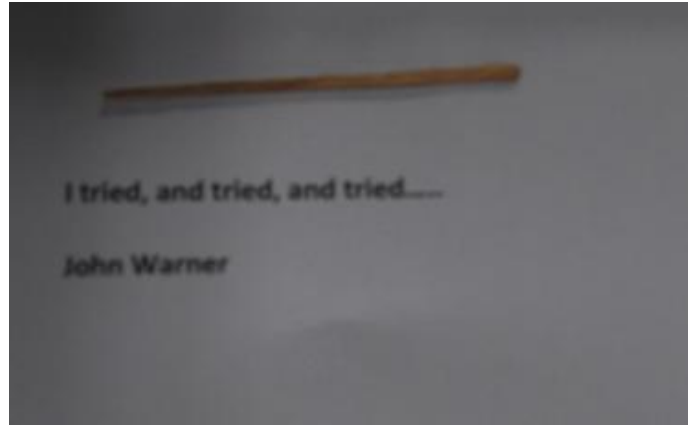

Hold down jig for drill table

John Warner

Wrecked Castle from game of thrones

What was left over

Bob Pugh Newsletter Editor

rypugh.1@gmail.com